Wake Up and Love

A weekend with internationally renowned spiritual teacher

Miranda Macpherson

31st October to 1st November 2009

10.00am - 5.00pm both days

Lorne House, Craigavad

Hollywood, County Down

Wake Up and Love

Led by an internationally renowned spiritual teacher and author of the book
'Boundless Love'.

Love is who we are minus our ego defences and historical conditioning. It is our true heart at rest as pure being. The spiritual purpose of life is to awaken beyond the veils of mind to know this, not just as a concept, but as living direct experience.

This retreat is sacred space to help liberate the love and natural innocence within us all, so our personal, relational and collective struggles can unwind in the ground of deeper grace.
Then we can explore how to relate to one another and be in the world from a consciousness of love.
Through satsang, guided self-inquiry practices, creative exercises, meditation and devotional practices, we will explore -

Contacting the ground of Real love within Unravelling defences and habits of closure

Transforming heart-break

Learning to Surrender

Embodying the love we truly are
